

Public Health & Community Medicine Department April 20th, 2019 The exam is ONE page	End Exam for Master Degree in Public Health and Community Medicine (1st Paper) Number of questions: 9 Time Allowed: 3 Hours All questions should be attempted Total Marks= 270 Degrees	 Tanta University Faculty of Medicine
---	--	---

DISCUSS:

- Policy formulation of “Health-Promoting Schools Initiative” stressing on its dimensions and components within a structured conceptual framework. (30 marks)
- Components of a programme-directed at maintaining safe motherhood. (30 marks)
- The new definition of primary health care and reasons for its renewing. (30 marks)

WRITE DETAILED NOTES ON:

- Lessons learned from national implementation of the “Integrated Management of Childhood Illness-IMCI” initiative. (30 marks)
- Promoting effective practices for living with chronic diseases. (30 marks)
- “PRECEDE-PROCEDE Model” for assessing health needs and supporting health promotion programmes. (30 marks)

MENTION:

- Top causes of global warming. (30 marks)
- Individual and environmental factors that can precipitate mental disorders. (30 marks)
- Key ethical issues in “Public Health”. (30 marks)

Good Luck – مع اطيب التمنيات بالنجاح والتوفيق

Public Health & Community Medicine Department April 20th , 2019 The exam is ONE page	End Exam for Master Degree in Public Health and Community Medicine (1st Paper) Number of questions: 9 Time Allowed: 3 Hours All questions should be attempted Total Marks= 270 Degrees	 Tanta University Faculty of Medicine
--	--	---

DISCUSS:

- Policy formulation of “Health-Promoting Schools Initiative” stressing on its dimensions and components within a structured conceptual framework. (30 marks)
- Components of a programme-directed at maintaining safe motherhood. (30 marks)
- The new definition of primary health care and reasons for its renewing. (30 marks)

WRITE DETAILED NOTES ON:

- Lessons learned from national implementation of the “Integrated Management of Childhood Illness-IMCI” initiative. (30 marks)
- Promoting effective practices for living with chronic diseases. (30 marks)
- “PRECEDE-PROCEDE Model” for assessing health needs and supporting health promotion programmes. (30 marks)

MENTION:

- Top causes of global warming. (30 marks)
- Individual and environmental factors that can precipitate mental disorders. (30 marks)
- Key ethical issues in “Public Health”. (30 marks)

Good Luck – مع اطيب التمنيات بالنجاح والتوفيق

Public Health & Community Medicine Department April 20th, 2019 The exam is ONE page	End Exam for Master Degree in Public Health and Community Medicine (1st Paper) Number of questions: 9 Time Allowed: 3 Hours All questions should be attempted Total Marks= 270 Degrees	 Tanta University Faculty of Medicine
---	--	---

DISCUSS:

- Policy formulation of “Health-Promoting Schools Initiative” stressing on its dimensions and components within a structured conceptual framework. (30 marks)
- Components of a programme-directed at maintaining safe motherhood. (30 marks)
- The new definition of primary health care and reasons for its renewing. (30 marks)

WRITE DETAILED NOTES ON:

- Lessons learned from national implementation of the “Integrated Management of Childhood Illness-IMCI” initiative. (30 marks)
- Promoting effective practices for living with chronic diseases. (30 marks)
- “PRECEDE-PROCEDE Model” for assessing health needs and supporting health promotion programmes. (30 marks)

MENTION:

- Top causes of global warming. (30 marks)
- Individual and environmental factors that can precipitate mental disorders. (30 marks)
- Key ethical issues in “Public Health”. (30 marks)

مع اطيب التمنيات بالنجاح والتوفيق – Good Luck