

All question should be attempted

Marks

- 1- Discuss in brief ocular ischemic syndrome. (10)
 - 2- Summarize the recent trends in management of choroidal neovascular membranes. (10)
 - 3- Summarize management of inflammatory glaucomas (10)
 - 4- Outline types, efficacy, advantages and disadvantages of fixed combination anti-glaucoma eye drops. (10)
 - 5- Outline classification and diagnosis of dry eye. (10)
 - 6- Summarize differential diagnosis of tubular field. (10)
 - 7- Discuss management of resistant acanthameba keratitis. (10)
 - 8- Describe intermediate uveitis. (10)
-

Good luck

MSc Degree
October 15th, 2016

Ophthalmic Surgery Exam

Tanta University
Faculty of Medicine

Ophthalmology Department

Time allowed: 3 Hours

Total Marks: 80

WRITE IN THE FOLLOWING ITEMS
(10 Marks each)

1. Indications, technique & complications of glaucoma valve implants.
2. Management of anterior & posterior capsule complications during phacoemulsification.
3. Post operative LASIK complications.
4. Surgical management of keratoconus.
5. Management of orbital blow out fracture.
6. Absolute indications & technique of vitrectomy in primary retinal detachment.
7. Management of traumatic hyphema.
8. Management of recurrent pterygium.

(END OF EXAM)
(GOOD LUCK FOR ALL)